NPEP Assessments

This manual summarizes each of the state-required tests and is designed for district test directors, building principals, and school test coordinators to guide decisions about the overall assessment system used at each school. Test security information is found in the second section of this manual and must be read and adhered to by all district and school personnel involved in the test administration or handling of materials related to the state assessment system. Information for private schools and home-schooled students is found in their respective chapters of this section. Terms and definitions used throughout this document are found in the Appendices at the end of this section.

Nevada's system for assessing students, the Nevada Proficiency Examination Program (NPEP), consists of different tests taken by students enrolled in public schools, including charter schools, in specific grades and specific programs. The following table outlines the assessments and grade levels administered under the NPEP for the 2005-2006 school year.

Please note one important change from previous school years: Assembly Bill 154 from the 2005 Nevada Legislative Session moved the writing assessment in grade four to grade five.

A full test schedule with test windows for all assessments including the State Alternate Assessment, the English Language Proficiency Examination, and the “National Assessment of Educational Progress” (NAEP) can be found in the Appendices at the end of this section.

This comprehensive series of assessments in various test formats with varying purposes provides opportunities for districts, schools, teachers, students, and parents to assess student achievement in the areas specified by Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS 389.015 and NRS 389.550). The High School Proficiency Examination (HSPE) tests student achievement and proficiency relative to the 1998 Nevada Content and Performance Standards in English Language Arts and Mathematics. The HSPE, required for high school graduation, also functions as a measure to help ensure that students leave high school with the skills and knowledge necessary for college, careers, and life.

State assessments administered in grades preceding the HSPE provide objective data that can be used by teachers and students to determine individual progress in essential areas and can be used by schools to identify areas where changes are necessary to improve student learning. If used properly, Nevada's assessment system can help students be better prepared for the HSPE when they reach high school.

Another purpose of the NPEP is to provide accountability to the public and to the Legislature. Test scores from the CRTs, the writing assessments, and the HSPE are used to determine Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) for every public school, including charter schools. AYP analyses are conducted for the school as a whole and for each of the student populations required by the federal No Child Left Behind Act.

General Requirements for NPEP Tests

Who Tests

All students enrolled in public schools, including charter schools, at a grade level where a mandated test is administered statewide must participate in a test administration. It may be possible for private schools to participate in portions of NPEP testing by contacting the Nevada Department of Education, Office of Assessment, Program Accountability, and Curriculum. (Refer to page 7 of this section for information on the requirements for participation.) Home-schooled students are not required to take the examinations; however, as a requirement of the Millennium Scholarship Program, home-schooled students must be afforded an opportunity to participate in the HSPE testing if they notify the local school district of their intent to participate.

Because participation rates for students are used to determine AYP, all public schools, including charter schools, must submit an answer document for every student enrolled in the grade level being tested whether that student actually tests or not. The information on the demographic page for each answer document must be filled in completely and accurately. If a student is absent or does not participate for another reason, the answer document must be coded appropriately as described in the test coordinator's manual for each examination. As part of the Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) formula, all schools and each identified population within the school must have at least a 95% participation rate on each state-mandated test. Audits will be conducted to verify the number of students eligible to participate in any specific testing program. For further information on the use of test scores for AYP purposes, refer to "School Accountability and AYP" on page 5 of this section.

State and federal requirements have been aligned so that all students must participate fully and meaningfully in the state assessments. LEP students, students with IEPs, and students qualifying under Section 504 may use accommodations, if necessary, for test setting, test scheduling, test administration, and response mode. Federal requirements for states are explicit in this regard (34 CFR 300.138). Further information regarding the assessment of students with special needs can be found in the Students with Special Needs section of this manual. Guidance regarding the use of Nevada's alternate assessment will also be found in this section.

Guidelines for administering each of the NPEP assessments are explicit and must be rigorously followed.

When Tests Are Given

The 2005-2006 testing calendar located in the appendices of this section provides information on required tests and administration dates. If a district has special circumstances that prohibit giving the scheduled examination during the designated dates, the district test director must submit a written request for a change of date to the Office of Assessment, Program Accountability, and Curriculum at the Nevada Department of Education at least one month prior to the required date of the test. The ability to grant requests may be limited both by the legislative requirement for uniform statewide administration and by contractual agreements with testing companies for scoring.

Test directors in districts with year-round elementary schools, year-round track schools, or other scheduling conflicts will continue to work with the appropriate assessment consultant(s) to schedule appropriate times for administration of required assessments to those students who will be on break throughout the designated testing periods.

Who Administers and Where

Licensed school employees must administer each of the tests in the NPEP. Unlicensed personnel, student teachers, substitute teachers, and parent or community volunteers may act only as proctors and not as test administrators. If student teachers, substitute teachers, and parents or community members assist with the administration of the test, they must receive the same training required for school employees. Unlicensed personnel are not to be left alone with students who are taking the tests.

Each test must be given in a school or school district building. Charter schools using on-line coursework as the primary mode of instruction must provide a centralized location for students to appear in person to take the scheduled state-mandated examinations. Any exception to this requirement must be submitted to the Nevada Department of Education in writing no later than 30 days prior to the scheduled administration. The Department will notify the district or charter school of the decision in writing no later than one week before the scheduled test date.

School Accountability and AYP

Participation and proficiency levels for CRT assessments, the 5th and 8th grade writing proficiency tests, and the HSPE in Reading, Mathematics, and Writing will be used as the primary indicators of school, district, and state level academic achievement. Test scores on each assessment have been divided into four performance levels: Emergent/Developing, Approaches Standard, Meets Standard, and Exceeds Standard. A proficient student has been defined as any student who attains the Meets Standard or Exceeds Standard level. As of the writing of this document, performance level data have not been determined for the CRT in grades 4, 6, and 7. The table on the following page outlines the cut scores used for each of the assessments used in the calculation of AYP.

Cut Scores Used in the Calculation of AYP

*This cut score applies to AYP only. Please refer to the “HSPE” section of this document for information about mathematics pass scores based on date of entry into high school.

In addition, average daily attendance (ADA) will be considered in determining Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) at the elementary and junior high school or middle school levels. At the high school level, graduation rates will be included in determining AYP. Additional information on AYP can be found on the AYP website: www.doe.nv.gov/accountability/ayp. The website also provides access to the latest state, district, and school profiles. School, district, and state assessment results, as well as all other elements reported through the annual Reports of Accountability, can be found online at www.nevadareportcard.com.

Obtaining Accurate Student Data

Since barcode labels are produced for answer documents used with most of the state-mandated assessments, it is imperative that student demographic data in each district’s student information system be accurate and complete. Therefore, strict school and district verification procedures for ensuring accurate student data should be implemented and followed well in advance of the testing window for each assessment.

Reporting Student Test Results

State law (NRS 389.015) stipulates reporting requirements for state assessments as follows:

- Not more than 14 working days after the results of the examinations are reported to the Department of Education, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall certify that the results of the examinations have been transmitted to each school district and each charter school. Not more than 10 working days after a school district receives the results of the examinations, the superintendent of each school district shall certify that the results of the examinations have been transmitted to each school within the school district.

- Not more than 15 working days after the school receives the results of the examinations, the principal of each school and the governing body of each charter school shall certify that the results for each student have been provided to the parent or legal guardian of the student.

Private, Exempt, and Other Non-District Affiliated Schools

Students enrolled in private or exempt schools are not required to take the statewide examinations. However, private and exempt high schools that have been granted a license or recognized as exempt by the Nevada State Board of Education may participate in the HSPE due to the requirement that a student must pass these tests to qualify for a state Millennium Scholarship. (Refer to www.millennium.state.nv.us.)

To participate in any portion of the Nevada Proficiency Examination Program during the 2005-2006 school year, private, exempt, and other non-district affiliated schools must comply with the following requirements:

- Be in compliance with all Private School statute and administrative code requirements within NRS and NAC Chapter 394.
- Attend the annual Test Security Training for Private/Exempt Schools.
- Submit a Test Security Plan to the Nevada Department of Education by October 1, 2005.
- Sign and return the Principal's Assurance Form to the Nevada Department of Education by October 1, 2005.
- Read and follow the guidelines for each test administered within their schools.
- Conduct a comprehensive test security training for school personnel administering any of the tests and a refresher training before each individual test for all personnel involved with administering that particular test.

Each section of this manual contains information and testing procedures for each of the state tests. Private, exempt, and other non-district affiliated school administrators must read and follow the guidelines for each test administered within their schools. All test administration and test security guidelines in this manual and all other manuals, including test coordinator's manuals and test administrator's manuals, must be adhered to equally by private, exempt, and other non-district affiliated schools as well as by all public schools, including charter schools.

If private, exempt, and other non-district affiliated schools meet the requirements listed above, they may test only students who are currently enrolled. Students who are no longer enrolled in a private or public school and want to take the HSPE must contact the Millennium Scholarship Office.

Private, exempt, and other non-district affiliated schools may also choose to administer the norm-referenced tests (ITBS and ITED) currently administered to the state's public school students. The tests for all grades other than grades 4, 7, and 10 may be purchased from Riverside Publishing Company without prior authorization from the Nevada Department of Education. If a private, exempt, or other non-district affiliated school wishes to purchase the Iowa Tests for grades 4, 7, or 10, a school official must contact the Test Security Coordinator at the Nevada Department of Education to receive the appropriate security and administration materials (See contact information on page 2 of this section). The school will also receive a two-part form entitled "Authorization for Private, Exempt and Non-District Affiliated Schools to Administer Tests in the Nevada Proficiency Examination Program" which must be completed and returned to the Nevada Department of Education before the school will be allowed to purchase the test materials.

Test documents that are not returned on time to the designated testing company may not be scored and may be returned to the school. Summary reports and student scores for private, exempt, and other non-district affiliated schools will be sent to each school. Private, exempt, and other non-district affiliated schools are responsible for distributing student reports to their students and for reporting student scores on the HSPE to the Millennium Scholarship program. Instructions for reporting student HSPE results to the Millennium Scholarship program will be mailed to each school early in May by the Treasurer's Office.

Private, exempt, and other non-district affiliated schools may lose the privilege of testing their own students if they do not follow the test administration and test security guidelines as established by the testing company and/or the Nevada Department of Education. A private, exempt, or non-district affiliated school that has lost its testing privileges will have to make arrangements for its students to test with students in the local public school district or in another private school with state testing privileges.

Home-Schooled Students

Home-schooled students do not participate in any of the NPEP assessments unless required to do so by their home district. However, home-schooled students who are planning to apply for a Millennium Scholarship are required to pass the HSPE.

Home-schooled students who wish to take any of the assessments must test when public school students test. A home-schooled student must make arrangements to take the examinations by notifying the district test director at least 30 days prior to the test date to ensure access. To register with the local school district, home-schooled students must fill out the "HSPE Registration Form for Home-Schooled Students" located in the appendices at the end of this section. Local school districts will receive the scores for home-schooled students. They will then notify those students as well as the Millennium Scholarship Office of the scores. The home-schooled students' scores will be reported separately from the school district's student scores and will not be included in district summary data.
